As we move closer to the amphitheatre, we can hear SNATCHES OF WORDS and PHRASES as though from a public address system.

3  EXT. AMPHITHEATRE - PODIUM - DAY - SHOT OF BEN

Thousands of expressionless STUDENTS are sitting there.

5  EXT. AMPHITHEATRE - SHOT OF PODIUM - DAY

BEN

- and today it is right that we should ask ourselves the one most important question: What is the purpose of these years, the purpose for all this demanding work, the purpose for the sacrifices made those who love us? Were there NOT a purpose, then all of these past years of struggle, of fierce competition and of uncompromising ambition would be meaningless. But, of course, there is a purpose and I must tell it to you. I ask you to remember this purpose always and I pledge that I shall endeavor to carry it with me forever.

6  SHOT - AMPHITHEATRE AUDIENCE - DAY staring at him impassively.

INTERCUT BETWEEN SHOTS of impassive students, seated, watching; of Ben standing alone on the huge amphitheatre stage; of CLOSEUPS of Ben speaking; of loudspeakers; of wind-blown papers on the podium.

INT. BEN'S ROOM - NIGHT - CLOSEUP - BEN
His eyes are open and he is trying to remember something.

There are the SOUNDS of many people TALKING and LAUGHING in other rooms. A RADIO nearby PLAYS MUSIC. After a while, there is the SOUND of a DOOR OPENING. The SOUNDS of the people TALKING are lower. MRS. TERHUNE'S voice can be heard among them.

MRS. TERHUNE'S VOICE
-- associate editor of the college newspaper in his junior year - managing editor in his senior year -

The SOUND of the DOOR CLOSING. Mrs. Terhune's VOICE and the VOICES of the other guests FADE DOWN. Mrs. Terhune's VOICE can be HEARD with varying clarity through the remainder of the sequence.

After a few moments, there is the SOUND of a LIGHT SWITCH being SNAPPED and light, as though from an overhead fixture, falls across BEN's face. He does not move.

After a few moments, there is the SOUND of the RADIO being SNAPPED OFF.

MR. BRADDOCK'S VOICE
What's the matter?

Ben's mouth opens a little bit and closes again.
MR. BRADDOCK'S VOICE
The guests are all downstairs, Ben. They're all waiting to see you.

BEN
Look, Dad - could you explain to them that I have to be alone for a while?

MR. BRADDOCK'S VOICE
These are all our good friends, Ben. Most of them have known you since - well - practically since you were born.

Ben has not moved. Now the bed on which he is lying moves as though someone has sat down upon it next to him.

MR. BRADDOCK'S VOICE
What is it, Ben?

The CAMERA BEGINS TO PULL BACK SLOWLY.

BEN
I'm just -

MR. BRADDOCK
- worried?

BEN
Well -

MR. BRADDOCK
About what?

BEN
I guess - about my future.

MR. BRADDOCK
What about it?

BEN
Don't know. I want it to be -

MR. BRADDOCK
To be what?

BEN (quietly) Different.

As Ben says this, the door to the bedroom opens and MRS. BRADDOCK looks in.

MRS. BRADDOCK
Is anything wrong?

MR. BRADDOCK
No! No – we're just on our way downstairs!

Mr. Braddock gets off the bed and goes to a chair and picks up Ben's jacket which is lying across it.

MRS. BRADDOCK
The Carlsons' are here.

MR. BRADDOCK
(to Mrs. Braddock)
They are?
(to Ben)
Come on.

Mr. Braddock puts the jacket on Ben.

MRS. BRADDOCK
They came all the way from Tarzana.

MR. BRADDOCK
It's a wonderful thing to have so many devoted friends.

They move out of the door, Mr. Braddock steering Ben.

PHIL and MIMI CARLSON are coming up the stairs as the Braddocks are moving down.

MR. CARLSON
Hey – there's our award winning scholar.

MRS. CARLSON
We're all very proud of you, Ben.

BEN
Thank you, Mrs. Carlson.

MR. CARLSON
Is that the new car out there? The little red Wop job?

MR. BRADDOCK
That's Ben's graduation present.

(CONTINUED)
MR. CARLSON
(putting his arm across Ben's shoulder)
Won't have much trouble picking them up in that, will you?

BEN
Sir?

MR. CARLSON
The girls. The chicks. The -
The teeny boppers.

MRS. CARLSON
I think Ben has gotten beyond the teeny bopper stage - haven't you,
Ben?

Mrs. Carlson gives Ben a broad wink. Ben tries to smile and return the wink politely.

BEN
Yes, ma'am.

They reach the hall at the bottom of the stairs.

BEN
Excuse me - I think I'd just like to check something on the car for a minute -

Ben moves to the front door and opens it. MR. LOOMIS steps into the house and grabs Ben's hand.

MR. LOOMIS
Here's the track star himself.
How are you, track star?

BEN
Just fine, Mr. Loomis.

Mr. Loomis closes the door and pushes Ben back down the hall.

MR. LOOMIS
I want to get a drink and then I want to hear all about that thing you won. That Hopperman award.

BEN Helpingham.

Mr. Loomis turns and goes into the dining room. Ben moves back to the stairway as THREE LADIES come out of the living room. One lady takes Ben's right hand, another lady his left, the third fingers the front of his jacket.

LADY 1
Ben - we're all so proud of you.

LADY 2
Proud, proud, proud, proud, proud.

LADY 3
What are you going to do now?

BEN
I was going to go upstairs for a minute -

LADY 3
No - I meant with your future.

LADY 2
With your life.

BEN
Well - that's a little hard to say -

MR. MCQUIRE appears behind Ben.

MR. MCQUIRE
Ben!

BEN
(to the ladies)
Excuse me.
(he turns around)

MR. MCQUIRE
(overwhelmed with pride)
Ben.

BEN
Mr. McQuire.

Mr. McQuire takes Ben's arm and steers him down the hall toward the back of the house and out through the back door.
The pool is eerily lit. There are FOUR PEOPLE standing and TALKING, drinks in their hands, at the back of the yard.

MR. MCQUIRE
Ben - I just want to say one word to you - just one word -

BEN
Yes, sir.

MR. MCQUIRE
Are you listening?

BEN
Yes I am.

MR. MCQUIRE
(gravely) Plastics.

They look at each other for a moment.

BEN
Exactly how do you mean?

MR. MCQUIRE
There is a great future in plastics. Think about it. Will you think about it?

BEN
Yes, I will.

MR. MCQUIRE
Okay. Enough said. That's a deal.

Mr. McQuire turns and walks back into the house. The people at the other end of the yard look toward Ben.

WOMAN #1
Here he is now. Here's Ben.

BEN
Excuse me just a minute -

Ben goes into the house through the back door.
EXT. BRADDOCK BACKYARD AND POOL AREA - NIGHT

We can see through the windows of the house, Ben making his way through people trying to stop him and speak to him as he goes through rooms, up the stairs and to his room.

SOUND of a door SLAMMING.

INT. - EXT. BEN'S ROOM - NIGHT

Ben stands with his back against the door. The SOUNDS of the PARTY downstairs and, as Ben walks across the room to a window, the SOUND of the WIND.

SHOT - LONG SHOT (Location)

Over Ben to pool area and people below. SOUND of the door OPENING. Ben turns. MRS. ROBINSON enters the room.

MRS. ROBINSON
Oh. I guess this isn't the bathroom, is it?

BEN
It's down the hall.

They stand for a moment, loocking at each other.

MRS. ROBINSON
How are you, Benjamin?

BEN
Fine, thank you. The bathroom is down at the end of the hall.

Mrs. Robinson moves into the room and sits on the edge of the bed.

BEN
Look, Mrs. Robinson, I don't mean to be rude but -

Mrs. Robinson takes a cigarette from her purse and lights it.

MRS. ROBINSON
Is there an ashtray in here?

BEN
No.
MRS. ROBINSON
Oh - I forgot. The track star doesn't smoke.

She blows out the match and puts it down carefully on the bedspread. Ben picks up a wastebasket, walks over to the bed, picks up the match and puts it in the wastebasket.

MRS. ROBINSON
Is it a girl?

BEN
Is what a girl?

MRS. ROBINSON
Whatever it is you're upset about.

BEN
Oh - no. I'm just sort of disturbed about things.

MRS. ROBINSON
In general.

BEN
That's right.

There is a long pause.

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin, I want to ask you something.

BEN
What?

MRS. ROBINSON
Will you take me home?

BEN
What?

MRS. ROBINSON
My husband took the car. Will you drive me home?

Ben reaches into his pocket and hands Mrs. Robinson a set of car keys.

BEN
Here - you take it.

Mrs. Robinson looks at him.
Do you know how to work a foreign shift?

Mrs. Robinson shakes her head.

You don't?

No.

Let's go.

She throws the keys to him. He catches them.

CUT TO:

SHOOTING THROUGH THE OPEN FRONT DOOR. Mr. Braddock is talking to the Terhunes at the door. Ben and Mrs. Robinson come down the hall.

Dad - Mrs. Robinson needs a ride home. I'll be right back.

Mr. Braddock pats Ben on the shoulder. Mrs. Robinson is walking ahead through the front door.

Wonderful party.
35 CONTINUED:

BEN

Right.

She doesn't move. Ben gets out and goes around to her side and opens the door.

MRS. ROBINSON

Will you come in, please?

BEN

What?

MRS. ROBINSON

I want you to come in till I get the lights on.

BEN

What for?

MRS. ROBINSON

Because I don't feel safe until I get the lights on.

They move to the door. She takes out her key and opens the door.

36 INT. ROBINSON HALL AND SUNROOM - NIGHT

MRS. ROBINSON

Would you mind walking ahead of me to the sun porch. I feel funny about coming into a dark house.

BEN

But it's light in there now.

MRS. ROBINSON

Please.

Ben turns and walks down the hall. They enter sunroom.

MRS. ROBINSON

What do you drink? Bourbon?

BEN

Look - I drove you home. I was glad to do it. But I have some things on my mind. Can you understand that?

She nods.

BEN

All right then.

(CONTINUED)
MRS. ROBINSON
What do you drink?

He looks at her.

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin - I'm sorry to be this way, but I don't want to be alone in this house.

BEN
Why not?

MRS. ROBINSON
Please wait till my husband gets home.

BEN
When is he coming back?

MRS. ROBINSON
I don't know.

She pours herself a drink.

MRS. ROBINSON
Drink?

BEN
No.

She hands him a drink. There is a pause.

BEN
Are you always this much afraid of being alone?

MRS. ROBINSON
Yes.

BEN
Well, why can't you just lock the doors and go to bed?

MRS. ROBINSON
I'm very neurotic.

She turns on the phonograph. SOUND of PHONOGRAPH.

MRS. ROBINSON
May I ask you a question?

Ben looks at her.

MRS. ROBINSON
What do you think of me?

BEN
What do you mean?

MRS. ROBINSON
You've known me nearly all of your life. You must have formed some opinion.

BEN
Well - I've always thought that you were a very - nice - Person.

MRS. ROBINSON
Did you know I was an alcoholic?

BEN
What?

MRS. ROBINSON
Did you know that?

BEN
Look - I think I should be going -

MRS. ROBINSON
Sit down, Benjamin.

BEN
Mrs. Robinson - if you don't mind my saying so - this conversation is getting a little strange. Now I'm sure that Mr. Robinson will be here any minute and -

MRS. ROBINSON
No.

BEN
What?

MRS. ROBINSON
My husband will be back quite late.

They look at each other. Ben is half standing.

MRS. ROBINSON
He should be gone for several hours.

She takes a step toward him. He puts his hand up and retreats around the other side of the chair.

BEN
Oh my God.

MRS. ROBINSON
Pardon?

BEN
Oh no, Mrs. Robinson, oh no.

MRS. ROBINSON
What's wrong?

BEN
Mrs. Robinson, you didn't - mean you didn't expect -

MRS. ROBINSON
What?

BEN
I mean - you didn't really think that I would do something like that.

MRS. ROBINSON
Like what?

BEN
What do you think?

MRS. ROBINSON
Well I don't know.

BEN
For God's sake, Mrs. Robinson, here we are, you've got me into your house. You give me a drink. You put on music, now you start opening up your personal life to me and tell me your husband won't be home for hours.

MRS. ROBINSON
So?

BEN
Mrs. Robinson - you are trying to seduce me.

There is a pause. She looks at him.

(weaker)

Aren't you?

MRS. ROBINSON
Why no. I hadn't thought of it. I feel rather flattered that you -

BEN
Mrs. Robinson, will you forgive me for what I just said?

MRS. ROBINSON
It's all right.

BEN
It's not all right, it's the worst thing I've ever said to anyone.

MRS. ROBINSON
Sit down.

BEN
Please forgive me. Because I like you. I don't think of you that way. But I'm mixed up.

MRS. ROBINSON
All right. Now finish your drink.

BEN
Mrs. Robinson, it makes me sick that I said that to you.

MRS. ROBINSON
We'll forget it right now. Finish your drink.

BEN
What is wrong with me?

MRS. ROBINSON
Have you ever seen Elaine's portrait?

BEN
Her portrait?

Yes.

MRS. ROBINSON

No.

(CONTINUED)
MRS. ROBINSON
We had it done last Christmas.
Would you like to see it?

BEN
Very much.

We move with Mrs. Robinson and Ben out of the sunroom, into the hall, up the stairs and along the hall to the doorway to Elaine's room.

INT. ELAINE'S ROOM - NIGHT

Ben moves into the room and looks up at the portrait.

BEN
Elaine certainly is an attractive girl, isn't she?

In the b.g. Mrs. Robinson watches him.

BEN (looking at the portrait)
I don't remember her as having brown eyes.

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin?

BEN
Yes?

MRS. ROBINSON
Will you unzip my dress?

He steps back.

MRS. ROBINSON
I think I'll go to bed.

BEN
Oh. Well, goodnight.

MRS. ROBINSON
Won't you unzip my dress?

BEN
I'd rather not, Mrs. Robinson.

MRS. ROBINSON
If you still think I'm trying to seduce you -

No, I don't. But I just feel a little funny.

Benjamin - you've known me all your life.

know that. But I'm -

Come on.

She turns her back.

It's hard for me to reach.

Ben reaches forward and pulls the zipper down.

Thank you.

Right.

Ben walks toward the door.

What are you so scared of?

I'm not scared, Mrs. Robinson.

Then why do you keep running away?

Because you're going to bed. I don't think I should be up here.

Mrs. Robinson lets her dress fall to the floor.

Haven't you ever seen anybody in a slip before?

Yes, I have -

He looks up at the portrait of Elaine.
BEN
But I just - Look - what if Mr. Robinson walked in right now?

MRS. ROBINSON
What if he did?

BEN
Well, it would look pretty funny, wouldn't it?

MRS. ROBINSON
Don't you think he trusts us together?

BEN
Of course he does. But he might get the wrong idea. Anyone might.

MRS. ROBINSON
I don't see why. I'm twice as old as you are. How could anyone think -

BEN
But they would! Don't you see?

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin - I'm not trying to seduce you. I wish you'd -

BEN
I know that. But please, Mrs. Robinson. This is difficult for me.

MRS. ROBINSON
Why is it?

BEN
Because I am confused about things. I can't tell what I'm imagining. I can't tell what's real. I can't -

MRS. ROBINSON
Would you like me to seduce you?

BEN
What?

MRS. ROBINSON
Is that what you're trying to tell me?

(CONTINUED)
BEN
I'm going home now. I apologize for what I said. I hope you can forget it. But I'm going home right now.

Benjamin walks out of the door and down the hall. The CAMERA PUSHES with him to the door. We see the entire stairway and part of the downstairs hall. Ben gets to the stairs and starts down.

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
BENJAMIN?

BEN
Yes.

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Will you bring up my purse before you go?

BEN
I have to go now. I'm sorry.

Mrs. Robinson walks into the hall. Her back is to us. She is holding her dress in front of her.

MRS. ROBINSON
I really don't want to put this on again. Won't you bring it up?

BEN
Where is it?

MRS. ROBINSON
On that chair in the hall.

She walks out of the shot.

BEN
Mrs. Robinson?

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
I'm in the bathroom.

BEN
Well here's the purse.

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Could you bring it up?

BEN
Well I'll hand it to you.

Ben starts back up the stairs.

BEN
Come to the railing and I'll hand it up.

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Benjamin - I am getting pretty tired of all this suspicion. Now if you won't do me a simple favor I don't know what.

Ben appears as he slowly climbs the stairs.

BEN
I'm putting it on the top step.

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
For God's sake, Benjamin, will you stop acting that way and bring me the purse?

Ben gets to the top of the stairs, and starts slowly down the hall.

BEN
I'm putting it here by the door.

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Will you bring it in to me?

BEN
I'd rather not.

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
All right. Put it in the room where we were.

BEN
Right.

INT. ELAINE'S ROOM - NIGHT

Ben walks quickly into Elaine's room, crosses to the bed and puts the purse down. As he starts to turn back, he looks up at Elaine's portrait. There is a movement reflected in the glass of the portrait. He turns quickly. Mrs. Robinson, naked, is shutting the door to the bedroom behind her.

BEN
Oh God.

She smiles.

(Continued)
BEN
Let me out.
She turns the lock on the door.

MRS. ROBINSON
Don't be nervous.

BEN
Get away from that door.

MRS. ROBINSON
I want to say something first.

BEN Jesus Christ!

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin - I want you to know I'm available to you. If you won't sleep with me this time -

BEN
Oh my God.

MRS. ROBINSON
If you won't sleep with me this time, Benjamin, I want you to know you can call me up any time you want and we'll make some kind of arrangement.

BEN
Let me out!

MRS. ROBINSON
Do you understand what I said?

BEN
Yes. Yes. Let me out!

MRS. ROBINSON
Because I find you very attractive and any time -

There is the SOUND of a CAR in the driveway outside.

Ben leaps at the door, pushes Mrs. Robinson aside, struggles with the door, gets the door open, runs into the hall and down the stairs.
INT. SUNROOM - NIGHT

Ben rushes into the sunroom and sits down. SOUND of FOOTSTEPS on the driveway outside. Ben jumps up, gets the glass he had been drinking from and sits down again.

SOUND of the front door OPENING and CLOSING.

MR. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Is that Ben's car in front?

BEN
(jumping up)
Yes, sir!

FOOTSTEPS approach the sunroom. MR. ROBINSON enters.

BEN
I drove - I drove Mrs. Robinson home. She wanted me to drive her home so I - I drove her home.

MR. ROBINSON
Swell. I appreciate it.

BEN
She's upstairs. She wanted me to wait down here till you got home.

MR. ROBINSON
Standing guard over the old castle, are you?

BEN
Yes, sir.

Mr. Robinson reaches for Ben's glass.

MR. ROBINSON
Here. It looks like you need a refill.

BEN
Oh no.

MR. ROBINSON
What?

BEN
I've got to go.
MR. ROBINSON
Is anything wrong? You look a little shaken up.

BEN
No. No - I'm just - I'm just a little worried about my future. I'm a little upset about my future.

Mr. Robinson takes the glass from him.

MR. ROBINSON
Come on. Let's have a nightcap

Mr. Robinson turns his back to Ben to mix the drinks.

Ben takes several deep breaths, straightens his tie and checks to see if his fly is okay. Mr. Robinson turns and brings him the drink.

BEN
Thank you very much, sir.

MR. ROBINSON
Ben - how old are you now?

BEN
Twenty. I'll be twenty-one next week.

MR. ROBINSON
(taking out a cigarette)
That's a hell of a good age to be.

BEN
Thank you.

MR. ROBINSON
I wish I was that age again.
Because, Ben -

Sir?

MR. ROBINSON
You'll never be young again.

BEN
I know.

MR. ROBINSON
Ben, can I say something to you?

(CONTINUED)
BEN
What?

MR. ROBINSON
How long have we known each other now?

Ben shakes his head.

MR. ROBINSON
How long have you and I known each other? How long have your Dad and I been partners?

BEN
Quite a while.

MR. ROBINSON
I've watched you grow up, Ben.

BEN
Yes, sir.

MR. ROBINSON
In many ways I feel as though you were my own son.

BEN
Thank you.

MR. ROBINSON
So I hope you won't mind my giving you a friendly piece of advice.

BEN
I'd like to hear it.

MR. ROBINSON
Ben - I think - I think you ought to be taking it a little easier right now than you seem to.

Ben nods.

MR. ROBINSON
Sow a few wild oats. Take things as they come. Have a good time with the girls and so forth.

Mrs. Robinson enters the room. She is now wearing the dress she wore earlier. Ben starts to get up.
MRS. ROBINSON
Don't get up.

Ben sits.

MR. ROBINSON
I was just telling Ben here he ought to sow a few wild oats. Have a good time while he can. You think that's sound advice?

Mrs. Robinson nods.

MRS. ROBINSON
Yes, I do.

BEN
I've got to go.

He stands. Mr. Robinson stands up with him.

MR. ROBINSON
You have yourself a few flings this summer. I bet you're quite a ladies' man.

BEN
Oh no.

MR. ROBINSON
What? You look like the kind of guy that has to fight them off.
(to Mrs. Robinson)

Doesn't he look to you like the kind of guy who has to fight them off?

MRS. ROBINSON
Yes, he does.

They start out of the sunroom.

INT. ROBINSON HALL - NIGHT

MR. ROBINSON
Oh say - Elaine gets down from Berkeley on Saturday.

BEN
Oh yes.

MR. ROBINSON
Ben - I want you to give her a call.

I will.

Great.

Mr. Robinson opens the front door and Ben goes out.

41 EXT. ROBINSON HOUSE - NIGHT

SHOOTING OVER THE CAR toward the house. Ben comes toward the car. Mrs. Robinson appears in the doorway; the light behind her makes it difficult to see her face.

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin?

BEN
Yes.

MRS. ROBINSON
Thank you for taking me home.

Ben nods.

MRS. ROBINSON
I'll see you soon, I hope.

Ben continues to walk toward us.

MR. BRADDOCK'S VOICE
Ladies and gentlemen - your attention, please - for this afternoon's feature attraction.

CUT TO:

42 EXT. BRADDOCK BACKYARD AND POOL AREA - DAY

The sun shines brightly. Standing and sitting around the pool are Mr. and Mrs. Braddock, their friends MR. and MRS. ARNOLD, and the Arnold children, PETER and LOUISE, who are eight or nine. Watching from across the fence on one side of the house: the young girl from next door and her boy friend. Across the fence on the other side of the house: a quartet of adults, formally dressed as though for a cocktail party, holding drinks and watching. One of them holds a baby. The Braddocks, the Arnolds and their children are dressed in California Contemporary Sport Style: the adults in styles infinitely too young for them, the children in styles infinitely too old for them.
Mr. Braddock stands alone at the end of the pool near the house. The others are grouped, more or less, at the other end. Mr. Braddock is hamming it up.

MR. BRADDOCK
Hey, over there -- I mean you!
Your attention please!

Mr. Braddock has moved over by one of the windows of the house, the window into the kitchen. He speaks quickly - in a fake sotto voce - towards the window.

MR. BRADDOCK
Are you ready in there, feature attraction?

BEN'S VOICE
Could I speak to you for a second, Dad?

But Mr. Braddock has already moved away from the window and is readdressing his audience.

MR. BRADDOCK
- what was I saying?

MRS. ARNOLD
Feature attraction.

MR. BRADDOCK
Right. Hey - I'm glad to see you're paying attention. A feature attraction that will be one of the most astounding events ever to take place in this particular backyard.

They all laugh and some applaud.

MR. BRADDOCK
Now I'm going to ask for a big round of applause to bring this boy out here - wait a minute - let me amend that - to bring this young man out here - because today he is twenty-one-years-old -

MR. ARNOLD
(his hands like a megaphone)
Let's get on with the show!

MR. BRADDOCK
Just hang on a minute because have a few words to say -

MR. ARNOLD
You always do.

They laugh; Mrs. Arnold makes a face at Mr. Arnold as he grinningly acknowledges the reponse to his snappy comeback.

BEN'S VOICE
Dad - could we just talk about this for a second?

MR. BRADDOCK
Twenty-one-years-old, ladies and gentlemen; four of those years spent accomplishing some rather extraordinary things at one of our nation's leading seats of learning -

MR. ARNOLD
Bring him out!

PETER AND LOUISE
On with the show! On with the show!

MR. BRADDOCK
(to the window)
I can't hold them much longer, Ben.
You better get out here.

BEN'S VOICE
I'd like to discuss this.

MR. BRADDOCK
(to his audience)
This boy - I'm sorry - this young man - is soon to continue his education as a Frank Halpingham Award Scholar - but before he does -

Mr. Braddock darts back to the window.

MR. BRADDOCK before he does -
(to the window)
You're disappointing them, Ben.
You're disappointing them.

BEN'S VOICE
Dad - can you listen -

MR. BRADDOCK
(meaning it)
I'll give you ten seconds.
(back to the people)
He is going to give us a practical demonstration of what I feel safe in saying is a pretty exciting birthday present - and it better work or I'm out over two hundred bucks - so let's hear it for -

Mr. Braddock moves to the screen door and pushes it open.

It slams against the wall inside.

MR. BRADDOCK
- Benjamin Braddock!

INT. BRADDOCK BREAKFAST KITCHEN - SHOT DOWN THE HALL - DAY
At the back of the hall, inside the house, stands Ben, dressed in a full length skin diver's wet suit, flippers on his feet, the oxygen tank strapped to his back, the mask pushed up his forehead, the air hose dangling.

He holds a spear gun in his hand.
The people applaud.

The people in the backyard. His father stands just outside the screen door.

MR. BRADDOCK
Folks - this remarkable young man is going to perform for you some spectacular and amazing feats of daring in water that is over six feet deep -

Ben's arms come into view and pull the mask down.

We are now looking through the mask as we MOVE FORWARD down the hall. Everything is slightly distorted through the glass.
Ben's hand comes up again with the breathing apparatus in it.

CONTINUED:

SOUND: the rhythmical PUMPING of air, obliterating the SOUND of the people around the pool who seem to be applauding and chattering noiselessly.

We MOVE out of the door and toward the pool. Mr. Braddock is running back and forth, clapping his hands and delivering his now soundless pitch.

We MOVE DOWN the steps and into the shallow end of the pool. Mr. Braddock is moving along the side of the pool, motioning toward us to come down to the deep end. He joins Mr. Arnold at the far end of the pool. They both begin to motion us toward them.

We get to the deep end of the pool. Mr. Braddock signals us with his hand to go under. He kneels down by the edge of the pool and reaches out with his hand and pushes us under. He has a big smile.

We SURFACE again and PAN AROUND for a last look. The figures, through the slightly distorted glass of the mask of Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. Braddock, watching and smiling; the neighbors on each side of the house, looking over their fences and laughing and pointing; Mr. Arnold nodding encouragement and talking; Mr. Braddock on his knees, smiling and trying to reach out far enough to push us under. We GO UNDER and SINK to the bottom of the pool.

SOUND of Ben's BREATHING APPARATUS, fading into the SOUND of the WIND.

SOUND of a dime DROPPING into a pay phone and DIALING.

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Hello.

BEN
Mrs. Robinson - I don't quite know how to put this -

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Benjamin?

BEN
Look - I was thinking about that time after the party -

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Where are you?

BEN
- and I was wondering if I could buy you a drink or something -

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Where are you?

BEN Uh - The Taft Hotel.

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Did you get a room?

BEN
No. Now I know it's pretty late and if you'd rather -

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Give me an hour.

BEN
What?

MRS. ROBINSON'S VOICE
I'll be there in an hour.

SOUND of her HANGING UP. Ben hangs up slowly.

He stands up in the booth, looks around, moves about uncomfortably for a few moments, removes his jacket and carrying it folded across his arm, leaves the phone booth and crosses to the doors that lead to the main lobby. As he is about to go in, the doors open and a group of VERY OLD PEOPLE start coming out, filling the doorway and moving very slowly, muttering to each other and helping each other out of the door and down the steps. Ben holds one of the doors open for them and stands politely to one side. As they get through, Ben starts to move inside. At that moment, A DOZEN YOUNG PEOPLE, dressed as though for a high school dance, push him to one side and move past him into the lobby. He moves back against the other door, holding it open and allowing them to go in first. He smiles politely and they pay no attention to him at all. He follows them into the lobby. They move toward the front desk and he moves with them. One of the boys at the front of the group leans in and says something to the CLERK behind the desk.

The clerk points across the lobby and says something to him. There are the SOUNDS of an orchestra PLAYING somewhere. The group of young people passes by the desk and Ben moves in behind them. He pauses at the desk and looks apprehensively at the hundreds of pigeon holes against the wall with the room numbers painted under them and the keys dangling suggestively.

ROOM CLERK
Can I help you, sir!

BEN
What? Oh - no - I'm just -

He points vaguely in the direction of the other young people.

ROOM CLERK
Are you here for an affair, sir?

Terror and disbelief start in Ben's eyes. He looks helplessly at the clerk.

BEN
What?

ROOM CLERK
The Singleman party, sir?

BEN
Oh - yes. The Singleman party.

ROOM CLERK
It's in the main ballroom.

BEN
Ahh - thank you.

Ben backs off and turns and starts across the lobby.

He puts on his jacket as he goes. He gets to the entrance to the main ballroom. He pauses at the door, looks in.

What he sees: People dancing, talking, sitting, etc.

He turns back toward the lobby. He stops.

What he sees: The room clerk across the lobby watching him.

Ben flashes a huge smile and points in toward the ballroom as though to express his joy at finding the Singleman affair inside, then turns back and enters the ballroom.

INT. BALLROOM - NIGHT

As Ben steps inside.

VOICE
Hello.

Ben turns. Four people stand in a row. Official greeters, they are: A MIDDLE-AGED WOMAN, AN OLDER MAN, AN ELDERLY LADY AND A TWELVE-YEAR-OLD BOY, dressed formally and they are smiling with great determination.

BEN
Hello.

It is the older lady who has said hello.

MRS. SINGLEMAN
You must be one of the Porters.

She grasps Ben's hand and shakes it.

BEN
No - actually I'm not -

MRS. SINGLEMAN
I'd like you to know my sister, Miss DeWitte -

MISS DEWITTE, who, from the looks of things, always has been and always will be, Miss DeWitte, takes Ben's hand.

MISS DEWITTE
How do you do?

BEN
How do you do, Miss DeWitte?
MRS. SINGLEMAN and my husband, Mr. Singleman -

Ben finds himself shaking the twelve-year-old boy's hand.

BEN
(apologetically)
Oh - sorry -

JEFFREY SINGLEMAN
Fine, thank you.

MRS. SINGLEMAN
That's Jeffrey, of course.

Ben switches to Mr. Singleman's hand.

BEN
Of course.

MR. SINGLEMAN
I didn't get your name, sir.

BEN
Benjamin Braddock, sir.

Mrs. Singleman looks at the seating list she has been holding.

MRS. SINGLEMAN
Braddock - Braddock?

BEN
Yes, but I'm afraid -

MRS. SINGLEMAN
I'll find your table in a moment. Braddock. Not Braniff? We have a Braniff.

BEN
No - actually I'm just looking for a friend.

MRS. SINGLEMAN
I'm afraid I don't understand.

INT. VERANDA ROOM - NIGHT

This is a large room with a bar and many tables along the windows that look out over the hotel grounds. It is quite dark and cool inside and there are no more than a dozen people seated around.

In the door to the lobby in the b.g. is Mrs. Robinson.
She pauses, looks into the room, sees Ben and starts toward him. Ben is looking out the window. He does not see her approach.

MRS. ROBINSON
Hello, Benjamin.

BEN
Oh. Hello. Hello.

He rises quickly.

MRS. ROBINSON
May I sit down?

BEN
Of course.

He pulls out a chair, for her.

MRS. ROBINSON
Thank you.

They sit down.

MRS. ROBINSON
How are you?

BEN
Very well. Thank you.

Ben tries to smile then looks out the window, then down at the center of the table.

MRS. ROBINSON
May I have a drink?

BEN
A drink? Of course.

Ben looks toward a passing WAITER and raises his hand. The waiter pays no attention. Ben looks back at Mrs. Robinson apologetically.

BEN
He didn't see me.

MRS. ROBINSON
Waiter!

For a moment, the noise in the room seems to recede. The waiter stops in his tracks, turns toward them. The waiter moves to their table. The noise in the room comes back.

The waiter looks at Mrs. Robinson.

MRS. ROBINSON
I will have a martini.

WAITER NO. 1
Yes, madam.

The waiter moves away. Ben watches him go.

MRS. ROBINSON
You don't have to be so nervous, you know.

BEN
Nervous. Well, I am a bit nervous. I mean it's - it's pretty hard to be suave when you're -

He shakes his head.

MRS. ROBINSON
Did you get us a room?

BEN
What?

MRS. ROBINSON
Have you gotten us a room yet?

BEN
I haven't. No.

MRS. ROBINSON
Do you want to?

BEN
Well - I don't. I mean I could. Or we could just talk.

MRS. ROBINSON
Do you want me to get it?

BEN
You? Oh no. No. I'll get it.

MRS. ROBINSON
Do you want to get it now?
Now?

MRS. ROBINSON
Yes.

BEN
Well— I don't know.

MRS. ROBINSON
Why don't you get it.

BEN
Why don't I get it?  Well—
I will then.

(he stands up)
If you'll excuse me.

Ben walks out of the Veranda Room and into the lobby.

INT. HOTEL LOBBY — NIGHT
Ben walks to the front desk and stands there.

ROOM CLERK
Yes sir?

BEN
A room. I'd like a room, please.

ROOM CLERK
A single room or a double room?

BEN
A single. Just for myself, please.

ROOM CLERK
Will you sign the register, please?

He pushes the card and a pen toward Ben. Ben writes his name on the card and then stares at it for a moment, crumples it up and fills out a second card.

ROOM CLERK
Is anything wrong, sir?

BEN
ROOM CLERK
(taking a key from behind the counter)
Do you have any luggage, Mister --
(looks at registration card) Gladstone?

BEN
Luggage? Yes. Yes. I do.

ROOM CLERK
Where is it?

BEN
What?

ROOM CLERK
Where is your luggage?

BEN
Well it's in the car. It's out in the car.

ROOM CLERK
Very good, sir. I'll have a porter bring it in.

BEN
Oh no.

ROOM CLERK
Sir?

BEN
I mean I'd - I'd rather not go to the trouble of bringing it all in. I just have a toothbrush. I can get it myself. If that's all right.

ROOM CLERK
Of course.

Ben reaches for the key.

ROOM CLERK
I'll have a porter show you the room.

BEN
Oh. Well actually, I'd just as soon find it myself. I just have the toothbrush to carry up and I think I can manage it myself.
ROOM CLERK
Whatever you say, sir.

He hands Ben the key.

BEN
Thank you.

INT. VERANDA ROOM - NIGHT

Mrs. Robinson sits, patiently and calmly. Her face betrays absolutely nothing as she stares ahead of her and sips her martini.

WAITER NO. 1
Mrs. Robinson.

She looks up. A waiter is standing next to the table with a telephone.

MRS. ROBINSON
Yes?

The waiter plugs the phone into the wall socket next to the table and hands her the receiver.

MRS. ROBINSON
Thank you.

The waiter nods and leaves.

MRS. ROBINSON

INTERCUT PHONE CONVERSATION

BEN

MRS. ROBINSON
That's fine.

BEN
But there's one thing. The desk clerk seemed to be a little bit suspicious. I mean - I don't know what their policy is - but -

MRS. ROBINSON
Well - do you want to go up first?

Ben walks out of shot.

60A  INT. HOTEL CORRIDOR - NIGHT

Ben leaves elevator, walks down corridor to hotel room and opens door.

61  INT. HOTEL ROOM - NIGHT

Ben closes the door behind him and leans with his back against it for a few moments looking at the room. The only light is that coming in the window. Ben turns on the light switch on the wall near the door. The room blazes with the light from three lamps and an overhead fixture. He turns the switch off. He crosses to the bathroom. Ben steps in and turns on the light.

61A  INT. HOTEL ROOM - NIGHT

Ben steps out, moves to the window. We see the pool area through the window. Ben closes the blinds.

There is a KNOCK on the door. Ben crosses to the door and opens it. Mrs. Robinson moves to the bureau and puts her purse and gloves on it. She looks at herself in the mirror for a moment then turns slowly, looking at the room, finally ending on Ben's face. She steps toward him.

MRS. ROBINSON
Well?

He clears his throat and then he kisses her.

MRS. ROBINSON
Why don't you watch?

BEN
Oh - sure. Thank you.

She takes off her jacket.

MRS. ROBINSON
Will you bring me a hanger?

BEN
What?

MRS. ROBINSON
A hanger.

Ben opens the closet door.

BEN
Oh - yes. Wood?

MRS. ROBINSON
What?

BEN
Wood or wire? They have both.

MRS. ROBINSON
Either one will be fine.

BEN
Okay.

He brings her a hanger. She puts her jacket on it.

MRS. ROBINSON

He undoes the zipper at her neck.

Would this be easier for you in the dark?

BEN

Mrs. Robinson - I can't do this.

MRS. ROBINSON

You what?

BEN

This is all terribly wrong.

MRS. ROBINSON

Benjamin - do you find me undesirable?

BEN

Oh no, Mrs. Robinson. I think - I think you're the most attractive of all my parents' friends. just don't think we could Possibly --

MRS. ROBINSON

Are you afraid of me?

BEN

MR. BRADDOCK
Would you mind telling me then - what were those four years of college for? What was the point of all that hard work?

BEN

MRS. BRADDOCK
The Robinson's are here.

Mr. Robinson steps in beside the others. They blot out the sun.

MR. ROBINSON
Hi, Ben. What are you doing with yourself these days?

BEN
Oh - not too much. Taking it easy.

MR. ROBINSON
That's what I'd do if I could. Nothing wrong with that. Hey Ben, Elaine's coming down from Berkeley soon. I want you to call her up this time.

BEN
I will.

MR. ROBINSON
Because I just think you two would hit it off real well together.

Mrs. Robinson steps in beside them. (A long pause)

If you -

BEN
No wait. Wait.

She stops.

BEN
I don't meet anyone, mother, but why did you say that?

MRS. BRADDOCK
Benjamin, I'm not going to pry into your affairs, but I'd rather you didn't say anything at all than be dishonest. Goodnight, Benjamin.

BEN
Well, wait.

She looks at him.

BEN
You think I'm being dishonest?

She nods.

BEN
Well why do you - why do you think that?

MRS. BRADDOCK

Oh. Well, I don't. Shall I tell you what I do?

MRS. BRADDOCK
Not if you don't want to.

BEN
I do.

MRS. BRADDOCK
But I don't want you to make up something.

BEN
I'm not. But I'm - I'm not very proud of what I do. I usually get kind of drunk. I usually drive over to Los Angeles and go to some bars and get kind of drunk. Then I take a hotel room. So I won't have to drive home on the freeway. I mean it kind of scares me to drive home after -

Well I just don't think we have much to say to each other.

BEN

All we ever do is come up here and throw off the clothes and leap into bed together.

MRS. ROBINSON

Are you tired of it?

(CONTINUED)
BEN
I'm not. No. But do you think we could liven it up with a few words now and then?

MRS. ROBINSON
Well what do you want to talk about?

BEN
Anything. Anything at all.

MRS. ROBINSON
Do you want to tell me about some of your college experiences?

BEN
Oh my God.

MRS. ROBINSON
Well?

BEN
Mrs. Robinson. If that's the best we can do let's just get the goddamn clothes off and --

She reaches for her shoe.

BEN
Leave it on! Now we are going to do this thing. We are going to have a conversation. Think of another topic.

MRS. ROBINSON
How about art.

BEN
Art. That's a good subject. You start it off.

MRS. ROBINSON
You start it off. I don't know anything about it.

BEN
Oh.

MRS. ROBINSON
Don't you?

BEN
Yes I do. I know quite a bit about it.
MRS. ROBINSON

Go ahead then.

BEN

Art. Well what do you want to know about it.

She shrugs.

BEN

Are you interested more in modern art or more in classical art.

MRS. ROBINSON

Neither.

BEN

You're not interested in art?

MRS. ROBINSON

No.

BEN

Then why do you want to talk about it?

MRS. ROBINSON

I don't.

Ben nods and looks at the rug.

MRS. ROBINSON

Can I take off my clothes now?

BEN

No. Think of another topic. Tell me what you did today.

MRS. ROBINSON

Do you really want me to?

BEN

Yes I do.

MRS. ROBINSON

I got up.

Ben starts shaking his head.

MRS. ROBINSON

Do you want to hear it or not?
BEN
Yes. But you might try and spice it up with a little originality.

MRS. ROBINSON
I got up. I ate breakfast and went shopping. During the afternoon I read a novel.

BEN
What one.

MRS. ROBINSON
What?

BEN
What novel did you read.

MRS. ROBINSON
I don't remember.

Ben nods.

MRS. ROBINSON
Then I fixed supper for my husband and waited until -

BEN There!

MRS. ROBINSON
What?

BEN
Your husband! Mrs. Robinson! There's something we could have a conversation about.

MRS. ROBINSON Him?

BEN
I mean everything. I don't know anything about how you - how you work this. I don't know how you get out of the house at night. I don't know the risk involved.

MRS. ROBINSON
There isn't any.

BEN
There's no risk?
She shakes her head.

BEN
How do you get out of the house?

MRS. ROBINSON
I walk out.

BEN
You walk right out the door.

She nods.

BEN
What do you say to him?

MRS. ROBINSON
He's asleep.

BEN Always?

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin, this isn't a very interesting topic.

BEN
Please. Now tell me. How do you know he won't wake up sometime and follow you.

MRS. ROBINSON
Because he takes sleeping pills.

He takes three sleeping pills every night at ten o'clock.

BEN
But what about the noise from the car. What if -

MRS. ROBINSON
The driveway's on my side of the house.

BEN (smiling)
We're talking.

MRS. ROBINSON
What?
BEN
We're talking, Mrs. Robinson. We're talking.

MRS. ROBINSON
Calm down, Benjamin.

BEN
Now let's keep going here.

MRS. ROBINSON
Can I undress and talk at the same time?

BEN
Right.

MRS. ROBINSON
Thank you.

BEN
Now. You say the driveway's on your side of the house. So I guess you don't sleep in the same room.

MRS. ROBINSON
We don't.

BEN
So you don't – I mean I don't like to seem like I'm prying but I guess you don't sleep together or anything.

MRS. ROBINSON
No we don't.

BEN
Well how long has this been going on.

MRS. ROBINSON
(looking at the ceiling for a moment)
About five years.

BEN
Oh no. Are you kidding me?

MRS. ROBINSON
No.

(CONTINUED)
BEN
You have not slept with your husband for five years?

MRS. ROBINSON
Now and then. He gets drunk a few times a year.

BEN
How many times a year.

MRS. ROBINSON
On New Year's Eve. Sometimes on his birthday.

BEN
Man, is this interesting.

MRS. ROBINSON
Is it?

BEN
So you don't love him. You wouldn't say you -

MRS. ROBINSON
We've talked enough, Benjamin.

BEN
Wait a minute. So you wouldn't say you loved him.

MRS. ROBINSON
Not exactly.

BEN
But you don't hate him.

MRS. ROBINSON
No, Benjamin. I don't hate him. Unhook my blouse.

BEN
(unhooking her blouse)
Well how do you feel about him, then?

MRS. ROBINSON
I don't.

BEN
Well that's kind of a bad situation then, isn't it?

(CONTINUED)
MRS. ROBINSON

Is it?

BEN

I mean it doesn't sound like it could be much worse. If you hated him at least you'd hate him.

She nods and takes off her blouse.

BEN

Well you loved him once, I assume. When you first knew him.

MRS. ROBINSON

No.

BEN

What?

MRS. ROBINSON

I never did, Benjamin. Now let's -

BEN

Well, wait a minute. You married him.

She nods.

BEN

Why did you do that?

MRS. ROBINSON

(taking off her stockings)

See if you can guess.

BEN

Well I can't.

MRS. ROBINSON

Think real hard, Benjamin.

BEN

I can't see why you did, unless ... you didn't have to marry him or anything, did you?

MRS. ROBINSON

Don't tell Elaine.
BEN
Oh no. You had to marry him because you got pregnant?

MRS. ROBINSON
Are you shocked?

BEN
Well I never thought of you and Mr. Robinson as the kind of people who...

MRS. ROBINSON
All right. Now let's get to bed.

BEN
Wait a minute. Wait a minute. So how did it happen?

MRS. ROBINSON
What?

BEN
I mean do you feel like telling me what were the circumstances?

MRS. ROBINSON
Not particularly.

BEN
Was he a law student at the time?

She nods.

BEN
And you were a student also.

MRS. ROBINSON
Yes.

BEN
At college.

MRS. ROBINSON
Yes.

BEN
What was your major?

MRS. ROBINSON
Why are you asking me all this?
BEN
Because I'm interested, Mrs. Robinson. Now what was your major subject at college?

MRS. ROBINSON
Art.

BEN
Art?

She nods.

BEN
But I thought you - I guess you kind of lost interest in it over the years then.

MRS. ROBINSON
Kind of.

BEN
Well how did it happen?

MRS. ROBINSON
How do you think.

BEN
I mean did he take you up to his room with him? Did you go to a hotel?

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin, what does it possibly matter?

BEN
I'm curious.

MRS. ROBINSON
We'd go to his car.

BEN
Oh no. In the car you did it?

MRS. ROBINSON
I don't think we were the first.

Ben thinks for a moment.

BEN
What kind of car was it?
MRS. ROBINSON
What?

BEN
Do you remember the make of the car?

MRS. ROBINSON
Oh my God.

BEN
Really. I want to know.

MRS. ROBINSON
It was a Ford, Benjamin.

BEN
(jumping up)
A Ford! A Ford! Goddamnit, a Ford! That's great!

MRS. ROBINSON
That's enough.

BEN
So old Elaine Robinson got started in a Ford.

There is a pause.

MRS. ROBINSON
Don't talk about Elaine.

BEN
Don't talk about Elaine?

MRS. ROBINSON
No.

BEN
Why not?

MRS. ROBINSON
Because I don't want you to.

She walks to the bed.

BEN
Well why don't you?

She pulls the bedspread down. Ben begins to remove his jacket.

(CONTINUED)
BEN
I wish you'd tell me.

MRS. ROBINSON
There's nothing to tell.

BEN
Well why is she a big taboo subject all of a sudden?

Mrs. Robinson uncovers one of the pillows.

BEN
Well - I guess I'll have to ask her out on a date and find out what's --

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin, don't you ever take that girl out.

Ben looks at her.

MRS. ROBINSON
Do you understand that?

BEN
Well look. I have no intention of taking her out.

MRS. ROBINSON
Good.

BEN
I was just kidding around.

MRS. ROBINSON
Good.

BEN
But why shouldn't I?

MRS. ROBINSON
I have my reasons.

BEN
Then let's hear them.

MRS. ROBINSON
No.
BEN
Let's hear your reasons, Mrs. Robinson. Because I think I know what they are.

She pulls the covers down.

BEN
I'm not good enough for her to associate with, am I? I'm not good enough to even talk about her, am I?

MRS. ROBINSON
Let's drop it.

BEN
We're not dropping it. Now that's the reason, isn't it? I'm a dirty degenerate, aren't I? I'm not fit to -

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin?

BEN
I'm good enough for you but I'm too slimy to associate with your daughter. That's it, isn't it? ISN'T IT?

MRS. ROBINSON
Yes.

BEN
You go to hell. You go straight to hell, Mrs. Robinson. Do you think I'm proud of myself? Do you think I'm proud of this?

MRS. ROBINSON
I wouldn't know.

BEN
Well, I'm not.

MRS. ROBINSON
You're not.

BEN
No sir. I am not proud that I spend my time with a broken-down alcoholic!

(CONTINUED)
MRS. ROBINSON
I see.

BEN
And if you think I come here for any reason besides pure boredom, then you're all wrong.

She nods.

BEN
Because - Mrs. Robinson this is the sickest, most perverted thing that ever happened to me. And you do what you want but I'm getting the hell out.

MRS. ROBINSON
Are you?

BEN
You're goddamn right I am.

He starts putting on his shirt. She sits on the edge of the bed and watches him.

MRS. ROBINSON
That's how you feel about me.

He nods.

MRS. ROBINSON
That I'm a sick and disgusting person.

BEN
Now don't start this.

MRS. ROBINSON
What?

BEN
Don't start acting hurt.

MRS. ROBINSON
Don't you expect me to be a little hurt?

BEN
Mrs. Robinson, you stand there and tell me I'm not good enough for your daughter.

(CONTINUED)
MRS. ROBINSON
Did I say that?

BEN
Of course you did.

She shakes her head.

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin, I want to apologize to you if that's the impression you got.

BEN
Well two minutes ago you told me I wasn't good enough for your daughter. Now you say you're sorry I got that impression.

MRS. ROBINSON
I didn't mean it. I don't think you'd be right for each other. But I would never say you weren't as good a person as she is.

BEN
You wouldn't.

MRS. ROBINSON
Of course I wouldn't.

Mrs. Robinson walks to the closet.

BEN
What are you doing?

MRS. ROBINSON
Well it's pretty obvious you don't want me around any more.

BEN
Well look - I was kind of upset there. I'm sorry I said those things.

MRS. ROBINSON
If that's how you feel -

BEN
But it's not.

MRS. ROBINSON
(smiling at him)
That's all right.

(MORE)

MRS. ROBINSON (CONT'D)
I think I can understand why I'm disgusting to you.

BEN
Oh no. Look - I like you. I wouldn't keep coming here if I didn't like you.

MRS. ROBINSON
But if it's sickening for you -

BEN
It's not! I enjoy it! I look forward to it. It's the one thing I have to look forward to.

MRS. ROBINSON
You don't have to say that.

BEN
Well I wouldn't. I would never say it if it wasn't true.

MRS. ROBINSON
May I stay then?

BEN
Yes. Please. I want you to.

MRS. ROBINSON
Thank you.

BEN
Well don't thank me, because I want you to.

There is a long pause.

MRS. ROBINSON
But you won't ever take out Elaine, will you? I want you to promise me that.

There is another long pause.

BEN
Look. Why the hell did you bring this up. It never occurred to me to take her out.

MRS. ROBINSON
Then give me your word you won't.

CONTINUED: (16)

BEN
This is absurd.

MRS. ROBINSON
Promise me, Benjamin.

BEN
All right, for christ's sake.
I promise I will never take out Elaine Robinson.

MRS. ROBINSON
Thank you.
(pause) Benjamin -

BEN
Let's not talk about it. Let's not talk at all.

At opposite sides of the room, without looking at each other, they begin to take off their clothes.

FADE OUT:

FADE IN:

INT. BRADDOCK KITCHEN - DAY

Ben sits at the table, eating his breakfast and looking at the back of a cereal box. Mr. and Mrs. Braddock are there.

MR. BRADDOCK
Elaine's back from school. I think it might be a nice gesture if you asked her out.

Benjamin looks at his father for a moment, then continues eating and reading.

CUT TO:

INT. BEN'S ROOM - DAY

Ben is lying on his bed. Mrs. Braddock stands in the doorway.

MRS. BRADDOCK
Don't you think that she's a terribly attractive girl? Because I think she's one of the prettiest girls I've ever seen.

Ben gives a small whimper.

CUT TO:

EXT. BRADDOCK BACKYARD AND POOL AREA - DAY

Ben is lying face down on his raft in the middle of the Braddock pool. The sun shines down. His diving mask is on over his eyes. His face is in the water, looking down at the bottom of the pool. Mr. and Mrs. Braddock, in their bathing suits, are in the pool, paddling around Ben. During the entire conversation they continue to swim around and around the raft, trying to talk and keep their heads above the surface.

MRS. BRADDOCK
It's pretty embarrassing. I really don't know what to tell Mr. Robinson. It's awkward and strained for me every time he suggests that you call up Elaine.

BEN
Next time he suggests it, I'll tell him I have no intention of ever calling her up in my life.

MR. BRADDOCK
I guess she's not good enough for you, is that it?

BEN
Look - Elaine Robinson and I do not get along.

MR. BRADDOCK
How do you know? You haven't seen her since high school. I guess your evenings, whatever you do with them, are just too valuable.

BEN
That has nothing to do with it -

MR. BRADDOCK
I guess I'll just tell Mr. Robinson that you're just too busy every evening - doing God knows what -

MRS. BRADDOCK
Don't go on like this. Now if Benjamin absolutely refuses to take her out -

90 CONTINUED:

BEN

I do.

MRS. BRADDOCK
- then I'll simply invite all the Robinsons' over for dinner on Thursday.

SHOT - BEN
He slides off the raft and goes underwater.

91 SHOT - BEN UNDERWATER

His hair streaming up, his eyes open.

CUT TO:

92 INT. SPECIAL SET BRADDOCK DINING ROOM - NIGHT

The dining room is one tenth its normal size. At a table for two are seated, jammed in against each other, the three Robinsons and the three Braddocks. Elaine's back is to us.
Ben is at the other end of the table, facing us. The Robinsons and Braddocks sit along the sides. Mrs. Robinson is next to Ben, everyone is eating, looking down at their places. After a few moments Ben throws his head back ans starts to scream. As he continues to scream, everyone looks at him except Mrs. Robinson who continues to eat calmly without looking up.

CUT TO:

93 EXT. BRADDOCK BACKYARD AND POOL AREA - DAY

Ben surfaces and pulls himself up on the side of the pool.

BEN

I'll go call Elaine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Braddock cling exhausted to the raft and try to smile at each other.

SOUND: Ding dong of the Robinson door chimes.

CUT TO:

94 EXT. & INT. ROBINSON FRONT DOOR, HALL AND SUNROOM - NIGHT

The door opens. Mr. Robinson stands there with a huge smile.

(CONTINUED)
MR. ROBINSON
Well, Braddock – it's about time you got around to this. Come on in.
I'm afraid the young lady isn't quite ready yet –

Mr. Robinson turns toward the sunroom. Mrs. Robinson is sitting there.

BEN
Hello.

MR. ROBINSON
What would you say to a short one?
Bourbon still your drink?

BEN
Yes.

Mr. Robinson hands him drink.

MR. ROBINSON
I'll see if she's ready.

Mr. Robinson exits.

SHOT – BEN AND MRS. ROBINSON

NOTE  Following dialogue played simultaneously

BEN
Now listen -- this was not my idea. It was my father's

MR. ROBINSON'S VOICE
(from hall)
Hey -- there she is.
Miss idea.
America -- that's who it is.
It's definitely Miss America.

MRS. ROBINSON
Benjamin -- I thought
I made myself perfectly clear about –

ELAINE'S VOICE
Daddy can you fix this? this. The clasp is broken
I think.
BEN
Look, we'll go out to dinner and have a drink and I'll bring her back. Because it was either that or a dinner party for the two families. And I'm afraid
I couldn't handle that if you don't mind. I have no intention of ever taking your precious daughter out again in her life. So don't get upset about it.

ELAINE'S VOICE
Is Ben here?

MR. ROBINSON'S VOICE
(whispering urgently)
I'll do it - I'll do it.

MR. ROBINSON'S VOICE
He's in the living room having a chat with your mother.

MRS. ROBINSON
But I am. I'm extremely upset about it, Benjamin.

Mr. Robinson and ELAINE enter.

ELAINE
Hello.

BEN
Hello.

CLOSEUP - MRS. ROBINSON

MR. ROBINSON'S VOICE
Well - I want you to keep your wits about you tonight. You never know what tricks Ben picked up back there in the East.

LAP DISSOLVE TO:

EXT. FREEWAY - NIGHT

SHOT - BEN AND ELAINE in Ben's car. From the back. Ben leans forward slightly, pushing the car recklessly in and out of the traffic. Ben is wearing dark glasses.

ELAINE
You're living at home now. Is that right?
CONTINUED:

BEN
Yes.

ELAINE
Do you know what you're going to do?

BEN
No.

ELAINE
Are you going to graduate school?

BEN
No.

He leans on the HORN. The car directly ahead of him does not move to the right. Ben jerks his car over to the right, swerves around the car ahead, jamming his horn down, and swerves back into the outside lane, giving the driver of the other car an angry look as he passes him.

Elaine holds on to the dashboard to keep her balance.

ELAINE
Do you always drive like this?

BEN
Yes.

CUT TO:

INT. RESTAURANT - NIGHT

A drab, almost deserted room with formally dressed WAITERS. Ben and Elaine are seated at a table.

BEN
Do you want some dinner?

ELAINE
I'd love some.

A waiter moves forward toward them.

BEN
Bring a menu.

WAITER #2
Dinner for two, sir?

BEN
No. Just for her.
The waiter moves away.

ELAINE
Aren't you eating?

BEN
No.

ELAINE
Why not?

BEN
If it's all right with you, I'm not hungry.

The waiter returns with a menu.

ELAINE
I've changed my mind. Thank you.

CUT TO:

EXT. SUNSET STRIP - NIGHT - SHOTS

Ben and Elaine walking on the strip.

EXT. STRIP JOINT - NIGHT

Ben pushes through the people crowded in around the entrance. Without turning around, he waits for Elaine who has difficulty following him. As she gets to him, he starts forward again. He starts up the stairs.

Elaine is just behind him.

CUT TO:

INT. STRIP JOINT - NIGHT

Seedy, ugly, three quarters filled. A tuxedoed HOOD leads them through the tables to a table directly under the stage on which a STRIPPER is in the process of removing her dress. There is one chair facing the stage, the other with its back to and up against the stage. Ben sits down in the chair facing the stage. Elaine stands for a moment, unsure.

BEN
Sit down.

Elaine sits in the chair with her back to the stage.

She folds her hands on the table and looks down at them.

Ben takes a pair of dark glasses out of his pocket and puts them on. The two chairs are slightly angled toward each other so that Ben can look up at the stage without looking directly at Elaine.

BEN
Why don't you watch the show?

The stripper is reflected in Ben's glasses.

ELAINE
Benjamin - do you dislike me for some reason?

BEN
No - why should I?

ELAINE
I don't know.

SHOT - ACROSS BEN - THE STRIPPER

She is down to a tasseled bra and g-string. She is twirling the tassels.

BEN
You're missing a great effect here.

Elaine turns around, looks at the stripper and turns back.

BEN
How do you like that?

Elaine doesn't answer.

BEN
Could you do it?

ELAINE
No.

The stripper sees Elaine look. The stripper smiles toward Ben and walks toward his table, twirling the tassels as she walks. Ben smiles as he watches her approaching.

The stripper moves directly behind Elaine's chair. The spotlight from the back of the house falls into Elaine's face. As it does, Elaine puts her hand up to shield her eyes.

The stripper slides a finger into her mouth, wets it and holds it up in the air. The music stops and a DRUM ROLL starts.

The stripper bends over Elaine's head and begins swinging the tassels so that they rotate in front of Elaine's face.

He leans forward slightly to watch the action. The swinging tassels are reflected in his glasses.

The DRUM ROLL gets louder and faster. The tassels swing more frantically.

She pulls her hand down from in front of her eyes.

With Elaine's face reflected in his glasses.

Through Ben's glasses. Elaine's face seen darkly but fully for the first time. The tassels swing in front of it. Tears start out of her eyes.

He reaches up to remove the glasses.

As the glasses come off and her face is seen in the harsh spill from the spotlight. The tears are running down her face. Only her eyes are crying as she looks straight at Ben.

With his glasses off, he watches her. He reaches forward and puts his hand in the way of the tassels.

Hey!

Some of the customers start to boo. Ben rises, takes Elaine's arm and leads her toward the exit.

The entrance to the strip joint. Elaine runs to the bottom of the steps.

The Sunset Strip sidewalk outside is crowded with people moving back and forth. Ben follows her. She pushes through the crowd on the sidewalk. Ben catches her and holds her arm.

BEN

Elaine - I'm sorry.

Elaine leans against the side of the building and pulls her arm away.

ELAINE

Will you take me home now?

BEN

I'm sorry I took you in there.

ELAINE

I think I'd better go home now please.

BEN

But, Elaine -

ELAINE

Where is the car?

BEN

I just want to tell you something.

Ben, facing her, keeps moving from side to side, trying to get her to look at him. She keeps looking away.

ELAINE

I want to go home.

BEN

But could I just tell you this one thing?

ELAINE

What?

BEN

This whole idea - this date and everything. It was my parents' idea. They forced me into it.

ELAINE

Oh - that's very nice of you to tell me.
BEN

No. What I mean is - that's why
I've been acting this way. I'm not like this. I hate myself like this.

She starts to cry. People on the sidewalk are looking at them. She turns away from them. Ben moves away from them.
Ben moves around in front of her.

BEN

Listen - could you stop crying,
please?

ELAINE

No, I couldn't.

BEN

But could you try?

ELAINE

No.

She brings both hands up to her face. Ben looks at her for a few moments in agony. Then, very determined, he takes her wrists in his hands and pulls them away from her face. She looks up startled. She starts to give a little cry but before she can he is kissing her. She closes her eyes.

He brings his fists, containing her hands, up to the side of her face. He opens his hands against her face, freeing her hands. Her hands move slowly to his wrists and hang on.
After a while she pulls away, turning her head slightly to one side.

BEN

Elaine -

He starts to pull her head back.

ELAINE

DISSOLVE TO:

111 EXT. DRIVE IN RESTAURANT - NIGHT

Ben and Elaine are sitting in the car in a drive-in restaurant. There are trays hooked onto windows along side of both of them. They are eating and drinking furiously.
I've had this feeling - ever since I've graduated - this - kind of compulsion that I have to be rude all the time. Do you know what I mean?

Yes, I do.

He looks at her.

It's like I've been playing some kind of - game - but the rules don't make any sense to me -

She is watching him carefully.

- they're being made up by all the wrong people - no - I mean no one makes them up, they seem to have made themselves up.

A car with a COUPLE OF TEENAGERS has driven up in the slot on their right. Its RADIO is tuned into a rock and roll station and it is playing LOUDLY. Ben leans across Elaine and speaks through the window to the kid behind the wheel.

Say - I wonder if I could request you to turn that down a little?

The kid turns the radio up. Ben and Elaine roll their windows up.

From outside of car. Ben is talking with great animation - Elaine is watching him. They are both eating as Ben talks, telling Elaine a story. Their windows are rolled up.

SOUNDS: Cars GUNNING their ENGINES; horns HONKING; radios PLAYING; waitresses YELLING orders; customers YELLING at waitresses; kids LAUGHING and TALKING from car to car; MOTORCYCLES driving in and out, TRAFFIC.
EXT. ROBINSON HOUSE - NIGHT

The car coasts silently to a stop in front of the Robinson house. The RADIO plays QUIETLY. Ben turns it OFF. They sit there for a long time without saying anything, Ben's hand touching her shoulder. It is very quiet.

ELAINE
Well - maybe I'd better go in.

He nods. They continue to sit there for another long moment.

ELAINE
Would you like to come in? I could make some coffee.

BEN
No, I mean - I wouldn't want to wake anyone up.

ELAINE
We won't. Let's go inside.

BEN
Wait a minute.

ELAINE
Is anything wrong?

BEN
No - I was just thinking - look - it's still early - we could do something - go somewhere else.

ELAINE
All right.

He starts the car immediately and drives away from the house.

INT. BEN'S CAR - NIGHT

Ben is driving.

ELAINE
Where we going?

BEN
I'm trying to think of where there's a place to have a drink around here.

ELAINE
Isn't there one in the Taft Hotel?

There is a SQUEAL of TIRES as Ben almost drives off the road.

ELAINE
What is the matter?

BEN
Nothing. I'm just wondering if they have a bar or not. I mean let's go see. Let's go see if they do or not.

INT. TAFT HOTEL LOBBY - NIGHT

Ben and Elaine enter the lobby and stand just inside the door. They start in a few steps.

BEN
Listen, Elaine - it seems to me that there isn't a bar in here. I mean - as far as I know.

ELAINE
Of course there is. Look - The Veranda Room - right there.

ONE of the CAR PARKERS passes them on his way out.

CAR PARKER
Good evening.

CAMERS BEGINS TO PULL UP AND AWAY. A BELLBOY passes them.

BELLBOY
Hello, how are you, sir?

The room clerk smiles at them.

ROOM CLERK
Good evening, Mr. Gladstone.

Ben and Elaine stop a few feet into the center of the lobby. The CAMERA PULLS BACK to a HIGH OVERHEAD SHOT revealing many people moving back and forth in the lobby, passing Ben and Elaine.

VOICE #1
Hello again.

VOICE #2
Hi, Mr. Gladstone. How are you this evening?
ELAINE
Benjamin -

BEN
Let's get out of here, Elaine. Let's go somewhere else.

ELAINE
Benjamin - do they know you?

BEN
Of course not.

VOICE #3
Good evening, sir.

VOICE #4
Mr. Gladstone - how are you?

He moves her toward the door.

BEN
Come on, Elaine. We're leaving.

CUT TO:

116  EXT. TAFT HOTEL

Ben brings Elaine through the door to the porch.

ELAINE
Ben - what's happening? Who is Mr. Gladstone?

BEN
I don't know. They must think I look like this guy Gladstone.

PAN WITH THEM as they start down the steps. Coming up the steps toward them is Miss DeWitte, on the arm of another Elderly Lady.

MISS DEWITTE
Hello, Mr. Brannif.

SOUND: Car starting noisily.

117  EXT. TAFT HOTEL DRIVEWAY - NIGHT

Ben and Elaine in his car. He takes his hand off the ignition, jams on the accelerator and drives the car speedily for twenty-one feet and jams on the brakes. He turns off the ignition and the lights.

He puts his head down on the steering wheel. He lifts his head.

BEN
Elaine - I like you. I like you so much. Do you believe that?

She nods.

BEN
Do you?

ELAINE
Yes.

BEN
You're the first - you're the first thing for so long that I've liked. The first person I could stand to be with.

She takes his hand.

BEN
I mean my whole life is such a waste. It's just nothing. I'm sorry. I'll take you home now.

He turns the key in the ignition and starts the car.

ELAINE
Benjamin - are having an affair with someone?

He freezes with his hand still on the key.

ELAINE
I'm sorry.

He turns off the engine.

ELAINE
I'm sorry. That is not my business.

BEN
It just happened. It was just this thing that happened along with everything else. Can you understand that?

She nods.
ELAINE
Was she married or something?

BEN
Yes.

ELAINE
With a family?

BEN
Yes. She had a husband and a son.

ELAINE
Did they ever find out?

BEN
No.

ELAINE
And it's all over now.

BEN
Yes.

ELAINE
I'm glad.

He starts the car and drives out.

118  EXT. ROBINSON HOUSE - NIGHT - SHOT - BEN AND ELAINE IN BEN'S  118  CAR

BEN
Can we do something tomorrow?

ELAINE
All right.

BEN
During the day? We'll go for a drive or something.

ELAINE
Okay.

BEN
You sure you really want to?

ELAINE
Yes.

(CONTINUED)
BEN
Because I wouldn't want you to do it unless you really wanted to!

ELAINE
I do.

BEN
You do?

ELAINE
Benjamin - I really do.

DISSOLVE TO:

EXT. STREET NO. 1 - NEAR ROBINSON HOUSE - DAY

SHOT - INT. BEN'S CAR - BEN DRIVING

It is raining. On the seat beside Ben is a package.

From the way it is wrapped, we can tell it is a gift.

Ben's right hand is on it as he drives. The radio is playing. Past Ben and through the windshield as the Robinson house comes closer and closer. The front door of the Robinson house opens and Mrs. Robinson comes out, dressed in a housecoat, and, in four or five fast steps, reaches the car, opens the door on the passengers side and climbs in. Ben moves the package over into his lap.

MRS. ROBINSON
Drive down the block.

BEN
Mrs. Robinson - I have a date with Elaine. We're going for a drive.

MRS. ROBINSON
(looking at him for the first time)
Do exactly what I say.

Ben starts the car forward down the driveway.

ANOTHER ANGLE - BEN AND MRS. ROBINSON

As they drive.

BEN
Now it seems to me -

MRS. ROBINSON
Listen to me very carefully, Benjamin. You are not to see Elaine again. Ever. Those are my orders. Is that clear?

Ben stops the car in front of a house halfway down the block.

BEN
Mrs. Robinson -

MRS. ROBINSON
I can makes things quite unpleasant.

BEN How?

MRS. ROBINSON
In order to keep Elaine away from you - I am prepared to tell her everything.

BEN
I don't believe you.

MRS. ROBINSON
Then you'd better start believing me.

BEN
Mrs. Robinson, don't wreck it. I'm asking you please not to wreck it.

MRS. ROBINSON
Go home now.

BEN
I just don't believe you would do that.

Mrs. Robinson looks at him for a moment.

MRS. ROBINSON
Try me.

There is a pause while Ben looks at her expression. Then he grabs the keys out of the ignition, opens the door on his side and jumps out of the car, carrying the package.

TRACK WITH BEN as he runs up the street and up the driveway toward the Robinson house. Ben gets to the front door.
120 CONTINUED: (2)

BEN (as he goes through the door)
Elaine!

121 INT. ROBINSON HALLS, STAIRS, DOOR TO ELAINE'S ROOM - DAY
Ben runs in.

BEN
Elaine?

ELAINE'S VOICE
Benjamin?

BEN
I'm coming up.

ELAINE'S VOICE
I'm not dressed yet.

Ben runs up the stairs. He still carries the package.

Ben gets to the top just as Elaine comes out of the door to her bedroom. She is wearing a skirt and slip and carrying one shoe.

ELAINE
Benjamin - I said I wasn't dressed -

Ben pushes her back into her room.

122 INT. ELAINE'S ROOM - DAY

ELAINE
What's the matter?

BEN
You've got to go over the back fence and I'll meet you on the corner.

ELAINE
Benjamin - what's happening?

BEN
Hurry up. Put your shoes on.

Ben turns and looks.

SHOT - OVER BEN'S SHOULDER
Mrs. Robinson is just entering the house.

(CONTINUED)
BEN

NO.

He turns around.

NEW ANGLE

Elaine is standing in the doorway watching him. She still holds the shoe in her hand.

BEN

Why aren't you ready?

ELAINE

Because I want to know what's happening.

SOUND of Mrs. Robinson's FOOTSTEPS in the hall below.

BEN

There isn't time!

INT. ELAINE'S ROOM - DAY

Ben pulls Elaine around behind the open door. They stand in the angle formed by the door and the wall as though they are hiding from someone. Mrs. Robinson's FOOTSTEPS can be heard coming up the stairs.

BEN

Elaine - I have to tell you something.

He holds her against the wall in the corner.

ELAINE

What is it?

BEN

That woman -

ELAINE

What?

BEN

That woman. The older woman.

ELAINE

You mean the one who -

BEN

Yes. The married woman - it wasn't just some woman -
Mrs. Robinson's FOOTSTEPS can be heard coming down the hall.

ELAINE
What are you telling me?

The FOOTSTEPS stop.

ANGLE - CLOSE ON ELAINE

Back in the corner. Mrs. Robinson's face appears in the crack in the door at Elaine's shoulder. Elaine looks from Ben's face to the crack through which she can see her mother's eyes staring.

ELAINE
Please - will somebody tell me -

She looks back at Ben, then back at her mother's face again.

Mrs. Robinson's eyes watch her through the crack in the door. Elaine looks away.

ELAINE
Oh - no.

Ben backs up.

BEN
Elaine -

ELAINE
Oh my God -

Moving along the wall as though to keep as far from Ben as possible, Elaine moves away from the door.

BEN
Please.

Elaine walks a few steps toward the other side of the room then turns back toward Ben. The tears are starting out of her eyes.

BEN
No - don't cry -

ELAINE
GET OUT!

BEN
Don't cry.

(holds the package out to her)

(CONTINUED)
ELAINE
Get out of here.

She moves toward him as though to hit him. He backs into the hall. Elaine SLAMS the door shut.

ELAINE
(holding the door)
Get out!

MRS. ROBINSON
(calmingly)
Goodbye, Benjamin.

He looks at her in horror. He starts to back down the hall toward the stairs, holding the package against his chest.

She is standing there, perfectly calm. She gets further and further away as though it is a very long hall in a very bad dream.

FADE OUT:

FADE IN:

Ben sits cross-legged on his bed in the dark, his back against the fishtank, smoking.

Ben drives by in his car. He looks at the house.

Ben dressed differently, stands by the window overlooking the backyard. Over his shoulder, we can see Mr. Braddock down by the pool, dressed in a sweater, cleaning the pool with a long-handled scoop.
Mr. Braddock looks up at Ben's window. Ben moves aside.

MR. BRADDOCK
Say that again.

BEN
I'm going to marry Elaine Robinson.

Mr. Braddock starts to smile.

MR. BRADDOCK
Well - well - well -

He almost giggles as he crosses to Ben and takes his hand to shake it. Mrs. Braddock appears in the doorway. Ben is shaking his father's hand.

MRS. BRADDOCK
Oh, Ben - this is so - exciting -

MR. BRADDOCK
Come on, let's call the Robinsons. We've got something to celebrate.

BEN
No. I think you'll want to wait on that.

MRS. BRADDOCK
They don't know?

BEN
No - they don't.

MRS. BRADDOCK
Well - when did you decide all this?

BEN
About an hour ago.

MR. BRADDOCK
Wait a minute. You talked to Elaine this morning?

BEN
No. She doesn't know about it.

MR. BRADDOCK
She doesn't know that you're coming up to Berkeley?

BEN
No. Actually - she doesn't know about us getting married yet.

MRS. BRADDOCK
When did you two talk this over?

(CONTINUED)
BEN
We haven't.

MR. BRADDOCK
Ben - this whole idea sounds pretty half-baked.

BEN
No - it's not. It's completely baked. It's a decision I've made.

MRS. BRADDOCK
But what makes you think she wants to marry you?

Ben picks up his suitcase, walks to the door and turns.

BEN
She doesn't. To be perfectly honest, she doesn't like me.

LADY RECEPTIONIST NO.
May I help you?

BEN
(too loudly)
Elaine Robinson.

LADY RECEPTIONIST NO.
Yes?

BEN
(clearing his throat)
Elaine Robinson. Does she live here?

The Receptionist runs her pencil along a list of names under the glass top of her desk. She finds it.

LADY RECEPTIONIST NO.
Three-oh-eight. Shall I call her for you?

The Receptionist's hand moves to the receiver of a phone on the desk. Ben looks at her hand for several seconds. He takes a step backward. Her hand starts to lift the receiver.

Ben moves backward, puts his hand up as though to stop her and shakes his head, speechlessly.

Looking at Ben.

Move with him as he moves past the students toward the door.

BEN
Not exactly.

Mr. McCleery stops and turns. Ben almost runs into him.

MR. MCCLEERY
What's that?

BEN
I said - not exactly - no.

MR. MCCLEERY
What are you then?

BEN
Well - I'm just sort of traveling through.

Mr. McCleery takes a couple of steps up, Ben following and stops again.

MR. MCCLEERY
I like to know who's living in my house. I like to know what my boys are up to.

BEN Ahhh.

Mr. McCleery just looks up at him.

BEN
I'm not up too much, actually, I'm just visiting. I mean - I've always wanted to see Berkeley.

Mr. McCleery takes a couple more steps and stops again.

150 EXT. CAMPUS BUILDING - DAY - LONG SHOT

Elaine comes out. She walks, carrying her books, in Ben's direction.

151 SHOT - ELAINE

He sees her and stiffens.

152 SHOT - ELAINE

Approaching from the distance.
He stands.

As she walks, she is joined by another GIRL with whom she converses as they walk.

Watching. He takes a step forward.

As they approach, they are joined by a tall BOY with a beard.

He starts toward them, falters, straightens himself.

They are getting quite near. Suddenly they are joined by THREE AFRICAN EXCHANGE STUDENTS, in tribal robes.

They all greet each other and continue to walk toward us.

He looks at the massed group moving toward him, horror taking over his face. He starts forward. As he passes Elaine and her friends he seems to take a deep breath and hold it.

She stops and slowly turns to look in his direction. Her companions also stop. Ben changes his direction and makes a circle to his left as though he has just changed his mind. He looks at her. He does not stop walking.

He makes a slow circle around her as he speaks.

BEN
Elaine. Hey - what a surprise.
(not quite looking at her)
Say - I thought I remembered that you were going to school up here - well - we'll have to get together sometime - I'll be up here myself for a little while.

162  INT. TELEGRAPH STREET RESTAURANT - DAY

Ben is sitting at a table by the window through which we can see the street. He is drinking a beer. Other tables are filled with students having animated discussions.

Ben starts to pour some beer from the bottle into the glass. He stops as he sees something through the window.

He leans forward.

Elaine comes out of a bookstore across the street. She crosses the street and moves to a bus stop. He stands, fumbles in his pocket for money, puts a dollar on the table and rushes out.
Ben comes out of the door just as Elaine gets into a bus and the doors close behind her.

The bus starts off. Ben runs after it. The bus gets to the next corner and stops for a red light. Ben catches up with it, runs to the front door and knocks on the door. The door opens and he climbs in.

She is seated next to an OLDER LADY by the window immediately in front of the rear exit door. She keeps looking out the window, almost holding her breath as she hears:

BEN'S VOICE
(getting closer as he moves past people toward her)
Excuse me - I'm sorry - I wonder if I could get by - excuse me -

There is a pause and then, immediately behind her:

BEN'S VOICE
(cheerfully)
Well - how about this for a coincidence.

Ben's face is right behind Elaine, between her and the older lady sitting next to her. Ben is standing on the steps to the rear exit door. Elaine continues to look out the window.

BEN
(leaning in a little)
I was wondering where you were headed.

Elaine doesn't answer. The lady sitting next to Elaine takes a look at her, turns around and looks at Ben, then looks at Elaine again.

ELAINE
I'm meeting someone.

BEN
Ah. Where?

She doesn't answer.

BEN
Oh. Well, I haven't either. I might just ride out there with you.

Hold on them riding.

CUT TO:

167 EXT. ZOO - DAY

Ben and Elaine are walking along in front of one of the outside animal cages. Ben is walking a step or two behind Elaine. He is darting glances to the right and left.

BEN
Is that him over there?

ELAINE
No.

BEN
Where did he say he was going to meet you?

ELAINE
I thought he said by the monkey house.

BEN
Oh.

She stops. Ben stops.

ELAINE
Benjamin - I would like to know what you're doing here.

BEN
Here? In Berkeley?

(CONTINUED)
ELAINE
Yes.

BEN
Well, I have this very pleasant room on Carter Street - and I've been getting to some classes -

ELAINE
But you're not enrolled.

BEN
No. I just sit in. They don't seem to mind. They've been very congenial about it.

She looks at him and starts to shake her head.

ELAINE
Benjamin - you're - I don't know what to say - you're --

BEN
Maybe we could get together some time and talk about it.

ELAINE
Really incredible -

BEN
Here he comes.

ELAINE
What?

BEN
I've got a real feeling that this is the fellow.

Elaine looks. A good-looking young man is striding briskly toward them. It is CARL SMITH.

CARL (waving)
Elaine!

BEN
He certainly is a good walker.

Carl strides up to them. He takes the pipe out of his mouth and puts it in his pocket. He reaches out and takes Elaine's hands.

CARL
Am I late? I'm sorry.

BEN
We thought you said by the monkey house.

Carl frowns and looks up over Elaine's shoulder at Ben. Ben smiles.

ELAINE
This is Benjamin Braddock.

Carl Smith. Benjamin rode here with me on the bus.

CARL
Glad to meet you, Ben.

Ben steps forward and grasps Carl's hand.

BEN
Great meeting you, Carl.

Carl steps back and puts an arm around Elaine's shoulder. The three of them look at each other for a moment.

BEN
Swell seeing you. Have a good time.

Ben turns and starts walking back the way he came. Carl and Elaine turn and go in the opposite direction. Ben stops after a few steps and walks over to one of the cages. He grips the rail with his hand and looks back at:

168 SHOT - CARL AND ELAINE

Walking away, his arm over her shoulder, his other hand gesturing with the pipe in it as he talks.

169 SHOT - BEN

As he watches them go. His artificial smile disappears.

The agony is such that he has to steady himself with his hand on the rail. He turns his face away, toward the cage. There is an animal in it, staring at Ben. They look at each other. There is a box - an automatic device with a recorded description of the animal - that begins to deliver its RECORDED MESSAGE.

Elaine turns in and disappears into the rooming house front door below.

INT. ROOMING HOUSE - BEN'S ROOM AND HALLWAY - DAY - SHOT

BEN

He runs to the bed and puts the covers back into place. He goes to the window sill, picks up an empty beer can, crosses to the bureau, opens a bureau drawer. He crosses to the wastepaper basket under the sink, bends down and takes a newspaper out of it. He crosses to the chair and sits down. He holds the newspaper in front of him. It is hopelessly crumpled. He gets up, crosses to the bureau, opens a drawer and takes out a traveling iron.

He kneels down, puts the newspaper on the floor and tires to straighten it out with the iron.

There is a KNOCK on the door. He rises, puts the iron back in the drawer as quietly and quickly as he can, then back to the chair, sits down and holds the newspaper on his lap.

BEN

Come in.

There is another KNOCK. Ben crosses to the door and opens it. Elaine is standing in the hall.

ELAINE

I want to ask you a question.

BEN

Come in.

(CONTINUED)
ELAINE
No. I want to know why you're here in Berkeley?

BEN
Because - I am.

ELAINE
Is it because I'm here?

BEN
What do you think?

ELAINE
I think it is.

Ben nods.

ELAINE
I said I think it is.

BEN
All right then! Yes!

ELAINE
Well, I want you to leave.

BEN
Elaine - I love you.

ELAINE
(looking down)
How could you do that, Benjamin?

Ben moves in behind her and puts his hand on her arm.

ELAINE
Do you just hate everything?

How could you possibly rape my...?

BEN
What?

ELAINE
I don't understand -

BEN
Did you say rape her?

ELAINE
- how you - how anyone - could do a thing like that.

(CONTINUED)
BEN
What did she say?

ELAINE
(holding his arm)
Let me go.

BEN
You've got to tell me what she said.

He touches her hair.

ELAINE
Why?

BEN
Because it isn't true.

ELAINE
I don't feel well.

Ben pushes her down softly onto the bed. He kneels along side her.

BEN
Tell me.

Ben sits next to her and puts his hand on her shoulder.

ELAINE
She said she was having a drink in the hotel with a friend.

You waited for her in the parking lot and told her she was too drunk to drive home and that you would get her a room for the night.

BEN
Then what?

ELAINE
Then you took her upstairs and you raped her.

BEN
Elaine - that is not what happened.

She puts her hands on his shoulder.

ELAINE
Please let me go.

(CONTINUED)
BEN
All right - but listen to me.
What happened was there was this party at my parents. I drove your mother home - then we went upstairs to see your portrait -

Elaine tightens her arms around his neck.

ELAINE
Don't tell me -

BEN
- and when we got up in the room she starts taking her her clothes off - and -

ELAINE
Benjamin - this is my mother!

BEN
- suddenly there she was without any clothes on - I mean really naked -

Ben is almost lying on top of her. Elaine screams - a long, loud scream. Ben looks at her. He leaps off the bed and runs to the sink. He fills a glass with water and brings it to Elaine. He starts toward the door.

SOUND OF FOOTESTEPS on the stairway and in the hall.

Ben goes to the closet, opens the door, takes a jacket from a hanger and puts it on.

SOUND: A KNOCK on the door.

MR. MCCLEERY'S VOICE
What's going on in there?

Elaine sits up and drinks the water. Ben looks at her then goes to the door and opens it.

BEN
Oh - hello, Mr. McCleery.

MR. MCCLEERY
Who screamed?

BEN
It's all right, Mr. McCleery.

(Continued)
MR. MCCLEERY
Screaming isn't all right. Not in my house it isn't.

BEN
It was just a visitor. But it's all right now.

Several BOYS are gathering in the hallway trying to see into the room. Ben edges through the door into the hallway.

INT. ROOMING HOUSE HALLWAY - DAY

MR. MCCLEERY
What did you do to her?

BEN
Look - she's all right. She's upset and she screamed. But she's okay now.

A BOY
Shall I get the cops?

BEN
What?

A BOY
I'll get the cops.

He starts for the stairs.

BEN
Hey - wait a minute. Now damn it - look.

He opens the door a little way. They all try to see in.

BEN
See - she's just having some water. Now there's no need for the cops or anything.

MR. MCCLEERY
All right, boys - I think you can get back to your rooms. I don't think we'll have any more of this agitation. Will we, Braddock?

BEN
No, sir.

The boys start back to their rooms. Mr. McCleery and Ben stand and look at each other for a few seconds.

MR. MCCLEERY
I want you out of here.

Mr. McCleery turns away and walks down the hall and starts down the stairs.

BEN
Mr. McCleery?

MR. MCCLEERY
You heard me. Out of here.

BEN
What for?

MR. MCCLEERY
(going down the stairs)
Because I don't like you.

Mr. McCleery disappears down the stairs. Ben turns and goes back into the room.

Elaine is standing at the sink. She is putting water on her face. Ben goes to the closet and takes out his suitcase and carries it to the bed.

ELAINE
I'm sorry I screamed.

Ben opens the suitcase.

ELAINE
Benjamin, when you came up here, what did you think was going to happen between us?

BEN
Elaine - right now I don't feel like talking much. I'm sorry about everything but I think I'll just do this now.

BEN
My belt.

ELAINE
Don't you have it on?

BEN
No. I have two. The other one is the one I'm looking for.
(he reaches under the bureau)
What's this?
(he brings out a marble)
It's from my grandmother.

ELAINE
The marble?

BEN
The belt I'm looking for was from my grandmother.

ELAINE
Oh.

Ben takes the marble to the suitcase and packs it.

ELAINE
What are you going to do now?

He goes back to the bureau, opens a drawer, takes out some T-shirts and the beer can and carries them to the suitcase.

BEN
Elaine - you're going to have to stop asking me that.

He packs the T-shirts, then carries the beer can back to the bureau and puts it back in the drawer, takes some ties from the drawer and crosses to the suitcase. Elaine gets up, goes to the door and opens it.

ELAINE
I don't want you to leave tomorrow.

BEN
I don't understand.

ELAINE
I don't want you to go anywhere until you have a definite plan.

BEN

MR. ROBINSON
(clearing his throat)
Do you want - do you want to try and tell me why you did it?

BEN
Mr. Robinson?

MR. ROBINSON
Do you have a special grudge against me? Do you feel a particularly strong resentment for me?

BEN
No, it's not --

MR. ROBINSON
Is there something I've said that's caused this contempt? Or is it just the things I stand for that you despise?

BEN
It was nothing to do with you, sir.

MR. ROBINSON
Well, Ben, it was quite a bit to do with me.
Ben takes a step forward.

BEN
Now look - please -

MR. ROBINSON
Ben, I think we're two civilized human beings. Do you think it's necessary to threaten each other?

BEN
I am not threatening you.

MR. ROBINSON
Do you want to unclench your fists, please? Thank you. I can see in the dark, you know. I've been here quite a while.

BEN
I am trying to tell you I have no personal feelings about you, Mr. Robinson. I am trying to tell you I do not resent you.

MR. ROBINSON
You don't respect me terribly much either, do you?

BEN
No, I don't.

MR. ROBINSON
Well, I don't think we have a whole lot to say to each other, Ben. I do think you should know the consequences of what you've done. I do think you should know that my wife and I are getting a divorce soon.

BEN
But why?

MR. ROBINSON
Why?

BEN
It shouldn't make any difference what happened.

MR. ROBINSON
That's quite a statement.
BEN
Listen to me. We got — we got into bed with each other. But it was nothing. It was nothing at all. We might — we might just as well have been shaking hands.

MR. ROBINSON
Shaking hands. Well, that's not saying much for my wife, is it?

BEN
You miss the point.

MR. ROBINSON
Don't shout at me, Ben.

BEN
The point is — I don't love your wife. I love your daughter, sir.

MR. ROBINSON
Well — I'm sure you think you do, Ben, but after a few times in bed with Elaine I feel quite sure you'd get over that as quickly as you —

BEN HUH?

MR. ROBINSON
I think I've talked about this enough. I don't know how far I can go, Ben. I don't know if I can prosecute or not, but I think maybe I can. In the light of what's happened I think maybe I can get you behind bars if you ever look at my daughter again. I have seen Elaine and I have spent the afternoon taking steps to insure...

Mr. Robinson climbs across the bed to get to the door.

Ben takes a step toward him.

MR. ROBINSON
Stay away from me, Ben!

Mr. Robinson stands at the door.

MR. ROBINSON
I don't want to mince words with you. As far as Elaine's concerned you're to get her out of your filthy mind right now. Is that perfectly clear to you? That's all, Ben. You'll pardon me if I don't shake hands with you.

Mr. Robinson opens the door and starts into the hall.

MR. ROBINSON
I think you are filth.

Mr. Robinson turns back from the hall.

MR. ROBINSON
I think you are scum.

MR. MCCLEERY

MRS. ROBINSON
I think we have everything quite under control now, Benjamin. Would you like a quick drink before you go?

She picks up a glass from the night table and takes a drink.

You can't stop me from seeing her, Mrs. Robinson. I'll find her.

I'm sorry we won't be able to invite you to the wedding, Benjamin, but the arrangements have been so rushed -

What the hell have you done?
